

FAQs

Can I just show up and pay at the boat for tickets?

No. Advance ticket purchase is required on all cruises.

What if it rains?

River Lady seating is fully enclosed so she sails rain or shine. No rain dates.

Is the tip included in the price?

We add a gratuity to your ticket price when you purchase your tickets. It is customary to tip on any on-board purchases (Bar). Additional tipping for exceptional service is optional and always appreciated.

What type of beverages do you serve?

Soft drinks are included with our meal cruises. We have a cash bar with an assortment of beer, wine and champagne (we have a 4 drink maximum). Passengers under 30 years old should bring ID. No food or beverages may be brought aboard on any cruises, with the exception of birthday cakes (non ice cream).

Do you have accommodations for someone using a wheelchair?

Yes, we have one bathroom which is wheelchair accessible, however, this question can be best answered by speaking with the captain prior to purchasing tickets to discuss your specific needs. With advance notice, every season we have many people using standard size wheel chairs aboard with minimal assistance needed by the captain or crew.

When is the ticket office open?

Although we are available by phone year-round (except Sundays), our dockside ticket office is open May through September, 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, Monday through Friday and 9:00 am to Noon on Saturday. Off season hours are by appointment.

Our public cruises run from May through October, however, groups and charters are also available from April through November.

No. River Lady features cabaret style seating and the majority of the tables seat 6 to 8 people.

After purchasing tickets, can I change the date or cancel?

No. Once tickets are purchased, they are not refundable or exchangeable. This includes tickets purchased via telephone using a credit card.

Is there a dress code for River Lady dining cruises?

River Lady Cruises do not require a particular dress code for any of our regularly scheduled cruises. We recommend business casual to dressy attire for our Dinner Cruises, as many of our guests celebrate their special occasions on-board. As it may be breezy on the open air decks, we recommend that you bring a light jacket in case you wish to enjoy the sights from the outer decks.
